IKTHOF Standard rules apply for Conventional Knife & Hawk. <http://ikthof.com/>. All Games will be thrown using the conventional Spin style except Woodswalk, which can be thrown Spin or No-Spin style.

There will be a Required Throwers (Throwers, Scorekeepers, Range Masters and Range Officers) meeting at 8:30am each morning.

- Saturday, August 26, 2017 starting at 9am, the Conventional Knife throwing competition will begin. In addition, one of the Games will be run during this time.
 - Conventional Hawk competition will begin shortly after conventional Knife.
 - No-Spin competition will begin shortly after the conventional Hawk.
- Saturday, August 26, 2017 evening, the Awards Ceremony and Dinner will be held after the completion of the day's events.
- Sunday, August 27, 2017 starting at 9 am, more Games and the Woodswalk will begin.
- Sunday, August 27, 2017 afternoon, the Games Award Ceremony will be held after the completion of the day's events.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners of the Conventional Knife and Hawk competitions in both Pro and Amateur Division as well as to the winners of the No-Spin competition and the Games.

All Participants and Spectators will be required to sign a Waiver.

[◇] Woodswalk – A unique Game that will challenge your knife and hawk skills, your endurance, and your ability to judge distances. Up to 20 targets will be hidden along a trail through the woods and throwers will proceed along the trail engaging each target with one knife and one hawk.
